

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE & CIRCLES

OVERVIEW

Restorative Justice, or "RJ," is a trauma-informed philosophy and set of practices that engage the community in building relationships and repairing harm through inclusive dialogue, deep understanding, and shared power. Our training sessions enable participants to learn more about RJ principles and provide them with the skills they need to facilitate effective RJ dialogues and integrate RJ practices into their daily interactions. DC Peace Team offers circles series and basic/advanced trainings. This training is available online and in-person. Please scan the QR code below or visit our website to learn more and register for an upcoming session.*

Custom Training Sessions for Groups & Organizations

We always strive to meet the unique needs of groups and organizations. Our team has extensive experience conceptualizing, designing, and facilitating custom RJ trainings and circles for groups and organizations in the U.S and around the world, including but not limited to organizations and groups in the categories listed below.

Schools & Universities

Workplaces

Advocacy Groups

Faith-based organizations

SCAN ME

Contact Us: dcpeaceteam@gmail.com